

Privacy Policy

Internet

Privacy Policy

The School complies with the Commonwealth Privacy Act. Collection, storage and distribution of personal information is managed in accordance with the National Privacy Principles. These procedures are outlined in the School's Privacy Policy.

The School holds copyright of the information available on this website, unless otherwise stated. Copyright of any third-party materials found on this website must also be respected.

Links to other websites

Although the School encourages reciprocating links to other relevant websites in the effort to increase visibility to both sites, hyperlinks to other websites imply neither responsibility for, nor approval of, the information contained in those other websites on the part of the School.

INTERNET PRIVACY STATEMENT

The "School" – [School/College name]

"Parents" – [Parents/guardians]

The School respects and is committed to protecting the privacy of all visitors to this website. The School collects information relating to the number of visitors to the website, IP addresses, connection type, pages viewed and connection times. This information is used to analyse our internet service to ensure that we can provide an improved service.

The School may collect personal information including names, addresses, email addresses only when it is voluntarily provided. This information will only be used for the purposes specified when providing that information.

The School may use 'cookies' on its website to store information on your browser to tailor the information on our websites to your preferences. Cookies are also used to assess the traffic through our website to find out what areas are popular and which areas need service improvements to ensure that we can maximise the quality of our website service.

Generally, most computers are set up to automatically permit internet cookies. Your computer settings should allow you to switch off cookies. However, this may result in a reduced service on our website.

By using this website, you are agreeing to the terms of this privacy statement. We maintain the right to edit, update and change the policy.

Updated March 2013.